SALT LAKE THEATRE GEO.D.PYPER MANAGER

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NEXT MATINEE

WHEN

JOHNNY

COMES MARCHING HOME.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "DOLLY VARDEN."

A Patriotic Masterpiece! A Child of Genius!

Magnificently Mounted; Costumed With Exquisite Taste

A Unique Ballet of Pretty Hoop-Skirted Lassies,

SALT LAKE THEAT GEOLDPYPER MANAGER

Christmas Week Offering

DEC. 25 to 30

MATINEES CHRISTMAS DAY, WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY

THE KLAW & ERLANCER CO. (Inc.)

Stupendous Production of Cen. Wallace's Mighty Play.

PRICES-Nights, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50; Matinee, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00.

A Delightful Bouquet of Dainty Musical Gems

Presents the Surpassingly Brilliant Military Comic Opera,

THE W. T. CARLETON OPERA COMPANY

A Superb Organization of Singing Artists!

BY THE HERALD COMPANY

Terms of Subscription.

Eastern offices. W. J. Morton in Charge—150 Nassau street, New York; 87 Washington street, Chicago.

Subscribers wishing address of paper changed must give former as well as present address.

All papers are continued until explicit order is received to discontinue. All aregarages must be paid in every case.

The Herald can be obtained at these

Portland, Ore.—Portland Hotel.

os Angeles—Ofiver & Haines.

Minneapolis—West Hotel.

St. Louis—The Planters: The Southers.

AN EVENT FOR MASONS.

the most important Masonid event today, when, with elaborate ceremony, building of King Solomon's temple, and ful about ascertaining. Get "at the there are some highly esteemed Ma- facts. sons who will tell you that they got Once upon a time two young men rical annals of New York. their Masonry from a man who got it were traveling along a lonely road at from his father, whose father got it night, according to an old-story, when from his father and so down an al- they saw something with long, ghastly most endless list of fathers to Solomon, arms ahead of them. One of the young and "Sappho" as examples, while Viola is that Masonry is concededly the old- ly arms was merely a sign post. est fraternal organization in the world.

aid Masons though do not advortise

they will always be prosperous, for we know that if they prosper they who veloped into a powerful democracy, most need the benefits will receive and made conquests on the continent

THE LIFE SAVING SERVICE.

intendent Kimball of the United States to separate from Athens, but was overlife saving service serves to call attention again to a most important but generally underestimated government detection and severely punished. At the contained nine cities, said disguise of an old impression one time it contained nine cities, said disguise of an old impression wife, is beset by many men's advances. partment. More than 60 per cent of the tion. It fell under the power of Rome, people of this country live away from and was severely punished for having whom she feels the same way about. the oceans and the great lakes. Therefore they have little of no opportunity came the prey of the 'unspeakable old man, who would be glad to see her understood from the statement that out the effect that they hung the lyre of Or- married couple and a third person suof 4,809, persons whose lives were en- pheus, after Orpheus had been torn ( of 4,809 persons whose fives were endangered in disasters to documented to pieces and thrown with his lyre into Bonaparte melodrama with a similarity vessels, all but twenty-seven were the river Hebrus, in the temple of Jeanne goes to live in the Tuilleries Jeanne goes to live in the Tuilleries ice. The lives of 955 persons who were having been washed ashore on Lesbos. out in sailboats, rowboats and other Apollo, it is related, was much pleased small craft were placed in jeopardy, at this act and as a reward he invested and all but ten were saved. While the them with the gifts of poetry and saving of life and the saving of prop- music. erty should hardly be discussed at the same time, the report naturally Jeais with the latter subject also.

documented vessels that were jeoparsaved. The value of undocumented be better for the man. vessels was $264,690 and the actual loss was $11.665. The record shows that the

The report concludes with an appeal for pensions for the widows and orphans of those who lose their lives in for losing the Michigan-Chicago game the line of duty, and those who become no further use. The Herald has heretofore urged the adoption of a pension system for deserving life savers. The thought that this government permits an employe to deliberately risk his life to save others and then, when he loses his life, permits the heroic man's widow and children to suffer, is ab-

The life savers are as much entitled have consented, after all

THE SALT LAKE HERALD to pensions and to retirement on pay as any soldier or any sallor, and even Published Every Day in the Year. | more The soldier and the sailor risk their lives in time of war, perhaps once or twice in a lifetime. The life savers risk their lives many, many times ever DAILY AND SUNDAY—One month, 35 afford to take care of their widows at cents; three months, $2.50; on year, $10.00. SUNDAY—One year, $2.00. SEMI-WEEKLY—(In advance), when they are no longer fit for duty. year, $1.50; six months, 75 cents. ery year. The government can will afford to take care of their widows and children and of the men themselves

In other words, don't jump at conclusions. Don't take radical action on Berton. I saw a pool of bets made as first impressions. It is barely possible, to which initial performance the larg-New York—Waldorf-Astoria; Imperial you know, that the men you think are eighteen English-print daily journals trying to hold you up merely want to would attend, leaving the two others.

whole police department, including the reserves, just to round up a couple of ad eyed pedestrians of foreign birth who have lost their way. The police have plenty of trouble trying to find apportion among them the excess of the real thing. Honestly, they should for a long time in Utah is scheduled for not be expected to burden themselves with anything else.

the corner stone of the new Masonic What's the use, dearly beloved, of temple will be laid. From all parts of going all to pieces before you know ers. It has been said in sad truth that

We have never seen any records of men, being hasty of spirit, exalted folmeetings of the lodge of which Solomon ly by running to the nearest telephone was master, but we take it for granted and calling the police. The other, his that he was a Mason and the master heart in his mouth, it must be conof his lodge. This, however, is not of fessed, walked straight ahead and dis-

Perhaps, best beloved, your spectre sore need of comfort, much might be seen the name spelled, this is the cor- a pocket and read, with an English ing over their boy. She lets her former rect way-is an island some 675 square their good works. When they give miles, with a population of about 125,- Hervieu was on view in a box at his desire is to talk about themselves. Mu-

"From a small monarchy Lesbos dein the territory of ancient Troy. It was conquered by the Persians, but achieved its independence and became The annual report of General Super- an ally of Athens. Afterward it tried this is in the time of Bonapart's con-

The efficiency of the service may be poetry and music. There is a legend to

We are inclined to think the Portland bartender who murdered a cus-It is estimated that the value of the tomer was a humane man. The chances are that he was slowly killing dized was $10,320,660. Of this sum more the aforesaid customer with whisky than seven-tenths, or $7.917,385, was and concluded that a quick death would Spot copper, or copper for December brave men who are in the business of delivery, sold at 18 cents in Boston the saving life at the imminent peril of other day. Twenty-cent copper is pretheir own lives and of saving the prop- dicted for early in the coming year. erty of others are doing their work in We rather guess Utah can worry along the most effective and gallant manner. all right with those prices prevailing.

The young man who was responsible threatened to commit suicide. Still, so disabled in the service as to be of the members of the Chicago team will always esteem him very highly.

possible to be in contempt of it by fin-

New Yorkers Flock to Hear Favorites. BY FRANKLIN FYLES.

the American Clyde Fitch there were the French Paul Hervieu and Pierre Kansas City—Coates House.

Omaha—Millard Hotel; Globe News Co.; abiding place. Such things have hapMegeath Stationery Co.
Denver — Brown Palace; Hamilton &
Denver — Brown Palace; Hamilton &
San Francisco—Palace, Hotel, and N.
Wheatley, corner Market and Kearney atreets.

Know how to get back to their numble to assistants or till later for review.
The count gave seven to Harned and Berton, six to Allen and Fitch and five to Nethersole and Herviou. How did the account balance as to merits of acting and writing? I am employed to don't be hasty. Don't call out the describe rather than to criticse.

tell, if I knew, how much more than a of the three was ever handsomer in all her life than she is now. They are what's the use, dearly beloved, of temple will be laid. From all parts of going all to pieces before you know the sensation coming to you? After all, the thing may not be as bath there will be many visitors from neighboring states. The Herald takes this conson on their progress and their apparations on their propertunity to congratulate the Markons propertunity to congratulate the Markons sons on their propers and their apparations on their propers and their apparation of the fullest measure of success in the f petition under nearly equal advantages is an event to be set down in the theat> about Chicago women's disapproval of "The Toast of the Town" and discusstherly guardian. So she has a husband, for the wedlock is regular in the eyes of the law and their acquaintances, and then again she hasn't a husband, for they are devoted to each other dutifully, but never connubially. Tallemonis a titled royalist, but he figures under an alias as the republican keeper of an There is a gallant Captain Crisenoy, however, who loves her sincerely and perfluous, nor a comedy with a prob-lem of tripartite complexity, but a and has fights of wit with Napoleon I. A digression here will give a glimpse A digression here will give a glimpse of the theatrical game of chance. Immediately after the production of "La Belle Marsellaise" in Paris. Lloyd Bingham bought an option on it for America at $1,000, believing that he might play Bonaparte, while his wife, Amelia Bingham, would have a second Madame Sans Gene part in Jeanne; but she decided to go into Proctor's Stock company and the prepayment was forfe ted. It happens that Amelia was acting Sans Gene in a revival while Lloyd was in the audience that saw Vincent Serrano come into distinction Vincent Serrano come into distinction as Bonaparte in the new piece. An-other probably envious witness of Serrano's good luck was Holbrook Blinn, an expert impersonator of Bonaparte; for Blinn had seen a chance for himself in the role, had paid $1.000 for an option on the play, but had been unable to induce any manager to take it up. And Blinn's case was more pitiful than Bingham's, because he was want-possible to be in contempt of it by fining him $1,000.

President McCurdy's resignation has been accepted. Tom Lawson must have consented, after all

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Whenever before have three actresses so alike in public regard and in degree of ability as Virginia Harned, Viola Allen and Olga Nethersole come all at once to Broadway with new plays? The theatrical devotees were puzzled where "He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding; but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly."

The that is slow to wrath is of great understanding; but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly."

Old King Solomon wrote this a long, on and it rings true today.

The that is slow to wrath is of great the devotees were puzzled where to go on Monday night. The character to go .How the ardor of Crisonoy gets no response from Jeanne—how her elusion of caress and kiss for a while seems to him charmingly shy and coy-how she tells him, as her idea of good behavior trying to hold you up merely want to would attend, leaving the two others know how to get back to their humble to assistants or till later for review. ing in the morning; how he loses pa tience and makes a passionate assault, those and other particulars of the epi sode are given frankly; and Miss Haring gross is done and indelicacy doesn't Those three actresses are more than a become indecency. For instance, when the bride in decollette sees her hushundred years old. I would not dare band's desirous gaze fixed upon her she naively covers her shoulders with a nundred they are; nor will I attempt to scarf. Of course Jeanne is driven to confess the reason for her strange beyears beyond a century; and I seek havior, and thenceforward the play further safely by saying that no one proceeds to her delivery to the second husband through the death of the first sons the Harned-Allen-Nethersole comhis father. The two households are in existence when the play begins and a quiet hour is spent in the exposition and discussion of the affair. Activity Allen is contrastingly an exemplar of breaks out and she dishonors Breuil. the dispassionate, as in "The Christian." Olga has exploited herself for a both husbands to her mother and contracture to New York with "The Laby-fesses her crime. Porges and Breuil are killed, leaving their widow with Gailee particular importance. The main thing covered that the thing with the ghastis that Masonry is concededly the oldly arms was merely a sign post.

the play. Viola has posed for many her boy clasped in her arms. But for magazine pictures of herself studying the divorce, you see, she might have with its author. I don't know one husband virtuously, instead of re-

The thesis of "The Labyrinth" is the miles, with a population of about 125,—the money to a widow they do not ask the mouspapers to print a photograph of the check, a picture of the widow and a scene showing the presentation ceremony and the tears of joy, Masonic charity is not of that sort. Rather do they follow the injunction of the Man of Sorrows when he said:

"But when thou doest alms, let not the deluge of Deucalion, Macareus led hand dooth; that thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret, himself shall reward the openly."

Again we congratulate the Masons of Utah, again we express the hope that they give the deluge of the said of the island and in modern they will always be prosperous, for we "From a small monarchy Lesbos de-to-they will always be prosperous, for we "From a small monarchy Lesbos de-to-they guardian. So she has a husband, for the wellock is regular in the even the wing on the task of the late of the widow and as seen showing the presentation ceremony and the tears of joy. Masonic charity is not of that sort. Rather do they follow the injunction of the Man at the present weaponated; the most soil with the period to talk about themselves. Mutal explanations convince them that hey play but no demand was made on Miles Nethersele to bring him to the foot law, not far being hand to the present weaponated; they not fill have play but no demand was made on Miles Nethersele to bring him to the foot law, as the print hand so of the weaponated; but that, after it was on the play but no demand was made on Miles Nethersele to bring him to the foot law as not filly by a continuous desir is to talk about themselves. Mutal explanations convince them that hey play but no demand was made on Miles Allen said she delive is happy in their present well have helded in the play but no demand was made on Miles Allen said she delive is happy in their present well as the play but no demand was made on Miles Allen said she delive is happy in their present well as the play but no demand was f stroke of good luck.

Fifteen years ago Clyde Fitch was a dramatist of such sudden fame with the disputed comedy of "Beau Brummel" that detraction found willing lievers. But Helena Modjeska had faith in the rising Fitch and he wrote of which increased the general doub of his ability. In the lapse of time he has become the most successful if not as many believe, the best American playwright. So when "The Toast of the Town," presented by the vastly popular Viola Allen, comes heralded as the second Fitch play of the season, the first night in New York is a theatrical of asion. Yet this town-toasted heroine is the same Mistress Batty. to observe the work of the lite saving crews and they cannot, therefore, appreciate the importance of the service. There is ground for believing that the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the lever into whose arms she aches to throw herself a bride. A Frenchy contains the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the lever into whose arms she aches to throw herself a bride. A Frenchy contains the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the lever into whose arms she aches to throw herself a bride. A Frenchy contains the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the lever into whose arms she aches to throw herself a bride. A Frenchy contains the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the lever into whose arms she aches to throw herself a bride. A Frenchy contains the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the lever into whose arms she aches to throw herself a bride. A Frenchy contains the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the lever into whose arms she aches to the lever into whose arms she aches to the lever into whose arms she aches to the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the secret that she is a manden may to be kept close and so she must hold off the secret that she is a manden may to be kep belles and beaux moving in a haze of illusive "atmosphere."

The once harrowing fate of Betty Singleton, which Fitch, altered into briefly distressing experience, is attendant upon her marr'age to an alcoholic duke and her retirement from prodigitous popularity on the London stage.

Her jealousy of his plantoic love for his cousin, her quitting of his ducal obvious shallow trickery in this play Mr. Fitch's work in such sincere dra Mr. Fitch's work in such sincere dra mas as "The Climbers" and "The War of the Word" is, to my thinking, th-best criticism of "The Toast of the Town." Yet there is little doubt of i success with general audiences, an that is not a reflection on their intell-gence, either, for they are habituated to enjoy their own Viola.

The nearest to the sort of novelty looked for in Fitch plays is an effectivariant of the "Kean" and "Vorice cided to use the drama, but he had gone on a tour to represent the Man of Destiny in the comic opera of "The Duches of Dantaia". Destiny in the comic opera of "The Duchess of Dantzig," and that company d'sbanded on the Saturday before "La Belle Marsellaise" wsa produced here on Monday. One winner and two losers The supreme court of Colorado has proved to Senator Patterson that it is possible to be in contempt of it by finmont and leave Jeanne 2 widow, but stage representations—the lights go out.

aginary royal box, and then, in fervid language, bids us all farewell. Again all is black till the green room is revealed; and there, to strike a warning note of seriousness to come, the drunken duke totters and stumbles towards the bride who has taken Betty's place with him in marriage.

"The Three Weavers" is another little stry taken from one of Mrs. Johnston's "Little Colone!" books. It is a fairy tale for fathers and mothers as well as for their daughters, as she tells us in the foreword. Fewer young girls would waste and spend their maiden swectness on the first how lovers who come their vealed: and there, to strike a warning note of seriousness to come, the drunken duke totters and stumbles towards the bride who has taken Betty's place with him in marriage.

NEW BOOKS.

"Told by Uncle Remus," by Joel Chan-dler Harris. Published by McClure, Phillips & Co. Old Uncle Remus, that inimitable narrator of negro folklore, appears again;

of France.

"Justice." by Charles Wagner. Published by McClure, Phillips & Co. Virginia Harned-Sothern and Olga Nethersole are exponents of the voluptuous in modern drama, with "Iris" and "Sappho" as examples, while Viola Allen is contrastingly an exemplar of the dispassionate, as in "The Christian." Olga has exploited herself for a return to New York with "The Labyrinth" by writing to the newspapers about Chicago women's disapproval of

don. Published by McClure, Phillips & Co., New York.

Perhaps, best beloved, your spectro work even be as dangerous as a sign with its author. I don't know what, if anything, Virginia would have one announce herself in "The Marsony has gone on with its work for good, doing more work and better work all the time.

Masonry lives because it is impossible to be a good as a segment that, in an organization containing so many thousands of members, there should be men who are not good distance. By the surface with the dollar, and the track give them financial control of Macedonia, about Mytliene, sainly long to the tother they are not good distances. By the surface whether they are not good distances by the control of Macedonia, about Mytliene is a city, an island, a pening lifty ideals, pure purposes.

Of Masonic there were the first part of the belief is a city, an island, a pening lifty ideals, pure purposes.

Of Masonic there were the first part of the belief is a city, an island, a pening lifty in the belief of the belief is a city, an island, a pening lifty in the surface of drugs and sods water.

Of Masonic there were the first part of the belief is a city, an island, a pening lifty in the lifty in the first part of the belief is a city, an island, a pening lifty in the lifty in the lifty in the first part of the left is the control of Macedonia, about Mytliene, so the confort for those in sore need of comfort, much might be said. Masons, though, do not advertise the part of the matter how you have seen the name expelled, this is the correct the first part of the left in the lifty in this instantion bear of the form and diseast one of the form the ball with the first part of the track gift player. The Labyrinth, "the one on which diseast under Freshous the form the ball period to the form the ball the private of the first part of the pronunciation hard to understand but husband in, thinking he comes to tell "In the Desert of Waiting: The Legend casy to laugh at, an address of thanks, her that the little one is worse; but his

COMEDIANS

SINGERS

DANCERS

ACROBATS

Gorgeous Scenic and Electric

Effects.

Mammoth Street Parade Daily,

11:30 a. m.

King of Bread.

ALL GROCERS

SELL IT.

way if the lesson of the "Three Weavers' could be learned by heart, by them and by their mothers and fathers. The morai of the story is obvious and yet the tale is told so quaintly, with such an old-time fairy story ring, that it holds and charms for its own sake. Both of these little books will meet a cordial welcome from the young folks and the older ones who love them.

"Back Home," by Eugene Wood, Illustrated by A. B. Frost, Published by McClure, Phillips & Co. by Joel Chandler Harris. "Why Mr. Dog is Tame." "How Old Craneycrow Lost His Head." "Why the Cricket has Elbows on His Legs," "Why the Turkey Buzzard is Bald." are a few of the problems in natural history made plain by the quaint and humorous philosophy of the old negro. The listener is this new volume is the son of the little boy to whom the first series of tales were told; and being a youngster of the modern school, he sets old Uncle Remus quite a new problem, to which, however, the genial old darkey is quite equal. Pictures by A. B. Frost, Gustav Verbeck and J. M. Conde are liberally sprinkled throughout the book, and add materially to its humor.

During his recent trip through the south President Roosevelt took occasion to comment upon Mr. Harris contributions to American literature. He spoke of his stories of reconstruction days and then of dear old Uncle Remus. "Presidents may come, and presidents may go, but Uncle Remus stays put. Georgia has never done more than when she gave Joel Chandler Harris to American literature."

"My Friend the Chauffeur." by C. N. Sind A. M. Williamson. Published by McClure, Phillips & Co., New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Williamson made their first bow to the public with that most

WITH THE PARAGRAPHERS.

Everybody Knew That. (Kansas City Star.) Young Mr. Hyde's concession that no ther company would have paid him $5. 60 a year is more notleeab's for the rankness than for its contribution of

Let Kaiser Bill Preside. (Atlanta Journal.)

The report that dip'omatic relations be-ween President Rossevelt and Mr. Harry, M. Whitney have been ruptured may ne-ess tate the calling of another peace con-Of the I-Told-You-So Kind.

All this dispute about the Panama ca-nal, just before the opening of congress, indubitably foreshadows a few more re-marks from Senator Morgan.

(Philadelphia Inquirer.)

Will Take Them All On. (Houston Post.) Mr. John W. Gates is now in Texas. Those Texans who would like to make some milion-dollar bets should make their wants known.

Getting Along Nicely. (Chicago Record-Herald.)

Charles E. Hughes is a lucky man. Up to this time his fool friends have not started a presidential boom for him. Where the Governor Sleeps. (Philadelphia Ledger.) Governor Pattison won't have an in-ugural dance, but will do a few light-ome steps on a political grave out in

Could Even Have a Rambunctious

Friend. (Denver Republican.) The new king of Norway w 11 get $20 000 year. He can almost afford to here hauncey Depew as .. s court jester.

SEVEN BLADED $1.00 DOL!AR $1.00 SAFETY RAZOR

"EVER READY" You' needn't bother having them honed and sharpened. Just send us 25c and seven dull blades and we'll ship you seven new

NEW STORE Opposite and south of Salt Lake

Theatre.

A TURBULENT, EXUBERANT

HILARITY, JOLLITY AND

RICHARDS & PRINGLE'S

FAMOUS MAINICTDE

SELECT YOUR PIANO

FOR CHRISTMAS NOW

We are making big reductions on all our PIANOS and ORGANS, trying to help you secure one for Christmas.

Standard makes from $200 up. Easlest of terms. Come in, let us talk with you and convince you that it is the

Vansant & Chamberlain

51 AND 53 MAIN

Absolutely

Pure

And Wholesome.

OUR CROWN LABEL

best place to buy.

*****************

ecepeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee

COMMENCING TONIGHT FOR 4 NIGHTS, WEDNESDAY MATINEE,

Commencing Thursday for 4 nights, "THE WHITECAPS."

*

DELUGE OF

Salt Lake Theatre, Dec. 4

The Thrilling Chariot Race in Act V.

Dramatized by WM. YOUNG. Music by EDGAR STILLMAN KELLEY. SEAT SALE OPENS DEC. 21

PRICES-Lower floor and first two rows balcony, $2.00; remainder balcony, 1.50; family circle, $1.00; gallery, 50c; box and loge seats, $2.50.

MATINEE PRICES SAME AS NICHT

No seats laid aside. No 'phone or ders taken, Mail orders for seats promptly filled when accompanied by remittances and a self-addressed stamped envelope for reply, after regular sale opens. Address Geo. D. Pyper, Manager Salt Lake Theatre. EXCURSION RATES ON ALL RAILROADS

FREE FOR LADIES ONLY Monday Afternoon, Dec. 4 AT 2:30 O'CLOCK.

A SCIENTIFIC LECTURE ON Beauty Culture and Facial Blemishes By Prof. Christion, Paris, France. Late of Paris Academy of Sciences. BEAUTY SPECIALIST TO MMES. BERNHARDT, LA TOUR, PAT-TI AND LANGTRY.

Assisted by one of the most beautiful women of her age, MME. MAY, B. D. Monday Afternoon Lecture Is Free Tuesday Afternoon, Admission 50c

* Lyric Theatre

TONIGHT! ALL WEEK! MATINEE WEDNESDAY! T. W. DINKINS' FAMOUS BEAUTY SHOW

UTOPIANS VAUDEVILLE BUTIESQUE

30-POPULAR ENTERTAINERS-30 STAGE FULL OF PRETTY GIRLS

Every Feature Bright, Brisk, Beautiful. Catchy jingles of tuniest music. Merry surprises in Rollicking Comedy. First Time Outside of New York City. The Beautiful O HANA SAN in Japanese Living Pictures.

Night prices: 25c, 50e, 75c, Matinees, 25c. SPECIAL FRIDAY-BIG AMATEUR NIGHT.

HERALD WANT ADS BRING RESULTS